Sheltering Arms Zimbabwe

Founded by Reverend Liberty Maadza, Sheltering Arms provides higher education, as well as social and emotional support, to children who age out of Daisy Dube Children's Home. Tatenda is halfway through her training in textiles and Simon is halfway through his training in building and construction at Magamba Vocational Training Center. Lucia and Solomon enrolled in Sheltering Arms in 2022. In January 2023 Lucia will begin her studies in hotel and catering and Solomon will begin his training in auto electric studies at Mutare Vocational Training Center.
